Osceola County Fair to feature Demolition Derby

Kissimmee, FL –The Kissimmee Valley Livestock Show and Osceola County Fair will host a spectacular Demolition Derby on Opening Day, Friday, February 10 at 7 P.M. The hard hitting, fast paced action is an open to the public, any year, any car derby. Competitors deliberately smash and crash into one another. The last driver with an operation vehicle is awarded the victory! A mini-car derby heat will also take place. Spectators will have a chance to win prizes during the fan participation games. This exciting show is only $5.00 per person plus General Fair Admission of $5.00 for Adults and $3.00 for Seniors and Children 5 – 11, Kids 4 and under are free. Senior Citizens (60+) are free on Opening Day!

Additional Entertainment Acts for the 2012 Fair include the Slack-wire Sam Show, World renowned Ventriloquist, Comedian and Singer Sylvia Fletcher, Eudora Farms Exotic Petting Zoo, Nojoe's Clown Circus, Master of the Chainsaw Brian Ruth and much more.

Strates Shows Midway features over 80 rides, games and shows. The new Skyflyer is a vertical swing ride, one of three new rides to debut at the Fair.

Traditional Fair favorites such as the Pie Eating contest, Baby Show, Children's Pet show and Tractor Pull will return by popular demand. There will also be art and craft exhibits entered by local residents and 4-H members. Livestock Shows and Sales will take place in the KVLS Pavilion.

The Osceola County Fair takes place February 10 -19, 2012 at Osceola Heritage Park in Kissimmee. For information regarding the Demolition Derby please contact T. E.
